Internet Safety

Wednesday, January 13 7:00-8:30 p.m.
St. Charles North High School
AUDITORIUM

Join Detective Richard Wistocki of the Naperville Police Department to learn how to keep your children safe on the internet. This important program is aimed at arming parents with information to assist in safeguarding their children and to provide parents with information to promote positive on-line experiences. Topics will include discussion of social networks, sexual solicitation, harmful material, harassment, cyberstalking and child abduction. Detective Wistocki will review actual cases and provide strategies to protect our children.
