

RESPECT

Respect is showing high regard for self, others, property, authority and country. A respectful person is polite and uses appropriate language and tone of voice. They understand that all people have value as human beings.